

The National Association Citizens On Patrol Corporate Status

A Non-Profit Public Benefit Corporation registered and incorporated within the state of California organized to meet the requirements of an IRS 501C3 tax exempt charitable organization.

Mission Statement

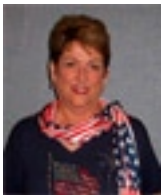

- 1) Support existing Citizen Patrol organizations with increased communications, education and training to further increase their professionalism and efficiency, as well as assisting in recruitment and retention efforts.
- 2) Promote the use of Citizen Patrol organizations in areas where they are not currently used by educating the community as to the many benefits such as reduced crime and cost savings.
- 3) Educate the public and media regarding the role of Citizen Patrol organizations and how they benefit the community.
- 4) Ensure our staff is equipped with the skills necessary for the association to be managed professionally.

Long Term Goal

Provide Citizen Patrol organizations with the same level of recognition, awareness, and respect that other public safety organizations have which will help to increase the volunteers pride.
