

Break out the Class A Uniforms, Polish those shoes and Shine those Patrol Cars, it's time to get ready for the 2004 Citizen Patrol conference series coming to the east and west coast soon!

This year, with funding assistance from the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Bureau of Justice Assistance, we are proud to host the first of two Regional Citizen Patrol Conferences. These two conferences are in addition to our upcoming Fifth Annual National Citizen Patrol conference held in Southern California where we present the "Citizen Patrol Volunteer of the Year" and "Coordinator of the Year" awards, along with others.

Our first two conferences of the year will be held in Manassas, Virginia on Saturday, June 26, 2004, and North Miami Beach, Florida, on Saturday, July 31, 2004, and will be free of charge to all attendees. Our National conference will be held on September 25, 2004, at the Chino Valley Community Church, Chino Hills, California, and there is a nominal fee to attend this conference.

Registrations for the first two east coast conferences will begin in April 2004 via our web site, www.nacop.org. Please be sure to check our web site and the Spring 2004 edition of our newsletter to register and join us.

Saturday, June 26, 2004, Manassas Baptist Church, Manassas, Virginia, 9:00am - 4:00pm, 20 minutes southeast of Washington, DC

Saturday, July 31, 2004, North Miami Beach Performing Arts Center, North Miami Beach, Florida, 9:00am - 4:00pm, 10 minutes north of Miami, Florida

Saturday, September 25, 2004, Chino Valley Community Church, Chino Hills, California, 9:00am - 4:00pm, 30 minutes east of Los Angeles where the 71, 91 and 60 Freeways meet.

Pictured Above, the entrance to the North Miami Beach Performing Arts Center which features seating for over 1,000 with a beautiful lobby and large stage. The facility is next door to the North Miami Beach Police Department.

Pictured Above, outside view of the Manassas Baptist Church auditorium which seats 800 and offers a large parking lot for Citizen Patrol vehicles to stage and be on display for all to see, please join us!